

THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE

Food and Beverage Guidelines at The International Centre

Food and Beverage Exclusivity

The sale and distribution of all food and beverage products and related service are exclusive to The International Centre. Food and/or beverage, including alcohol, may not be consumed, sampled, distributed or sold by the client(s), its exhibitor(s) or any other organization(s), directly or indirectly associated with the event without prior written approval of The International Centre. The International Centre reserves the right to restrict any and all product and/or services not previously approved by management.

Product Sampling

Exhibitors whose primary line of business is producing and/or selling food and beverage related product(s) may request permission to sample and sell product(s) by completing the facility's Exhibitor Authorization Form. Approval will be based on the direct relationship of product to be sampled and/or sold and the exhibitor's primary line of business. If the product is not produced and/or sold as the primary line of business for the exhibitor, sale and/or sampling will not be permitted. The sale of food and beverage items is restricted to bulk quantities and not meant for consumption within the facility. Single servings are not permitted for sale. Sample sizes must comply with the Exhibitor Authorization Form.

Exhibitors submitting the Exhibitor Authorization Form must also apply with the Peel Region by completing the Special Event Application for Food Vendors and comply with the Peel Region's Food Safety Guidelines for Special Events.

Product Demonstration

Exhibitors wanting to demonstrate product(s) produced and/or sold as their primary line of business by preparing food and beverage items must obtain written permission from the facility and must comply with Peel Region's Food Safety Guidelines for Special Events.

All food items must be pre-cooked off-site in an inspected and licensed commercial kitchen/food premises. Raw items cannot be cooked on-site. Sampling of the cooked items is permitted and the exhibitor must request permission to sample product(s) by completing the facility's Exhibitor Authorization Form. Sample sized must comply with the Exhibitor Authorization Form.

Booth Hospitality

All exhibitors wanting to dispense food and beverage products from their booths to attract attendees/clients to their booth(s) are required to contract booth hospitality services exclusively with The International Centre. The distribution of non-contracted items is a violation of the License/Event Agreement and the agreement holder will be asked to intervene to have such practice terminated. The facility will have the right to confiscate any such product(s) and dispose of them at its discretion.

Thank you for your inquiry to sell or distribute sample food & beverage (herein after referred to as "Samples"). The International Centre holds the exclusive rights for food & beverage production and distribution within its facility. "Show Distributors" (i.e. show management, exhibitors, sponsors, vendors, etc.) may request permission to sell or distribute samples for product(s) that are produced and/or sold as their primary line of business. With the prior written approval of The International Centre, Show Distributors are permitted to distribute samples only for the above mentioned Event and Event Date(s). The International Centre holds all final rights to approve or deny any or all requests. All approved Show Distributors must comply with the following terms and conditions and approval may be withdrawn if any of such terms and conditions are violated.

- Show Distributors approved by The International Centre are permitted to:
 - sell products that are packaged, sealed in bulk quantities and intended to be consumed off site; and/or
 - distribute complimentary food samples on premises during a show/event but are restricted to one ounce (1oz) for snack foods, two ounces (2oz) for food products of any kind and two ounces (2oz) for beverage samples.
 - the sale or distribution of complimentary alcoholic samples are not permitted without The International Centre's prior written approval; Show Distributors must obtain all required permits and insurance coverages and fully comply with the rules and regulations of all relevant authorities including but not limited to The International Centre, the AGCO and the LLBO.
- Authorized Show Distributors agree to indemnify The International Centre with respect to any liability resulting from the sale or distribution of Samples. The International Centre will not be responsible for the quality and/or state of the Samples sold or distributed. The Show Distributors must comply with all The International Centre and government (municipal/provincial/federal) sanctioned food health and safety regulations.
- All costs associated with the transportation, setup, power, display, clean-up and tear down of the exhibit booth, products, equipment, smallwares, et cetera are the responsibility of the Show Distributors conducting the sale or distribution of samples.
- Rental of furniture, equipment and labour are available at listed show prices (see catering/booth menus). Hours of operation must be adhered to as scheduled by show/event management and/or The International Centre.
- The International Centre will review your request within ten (10) business days of receipt of a fully completed request form. All requests should be forwarded to your Events Manager contact at The International Centre no later than 30 days prior to the show/event.
- Please complete and submit all necessary Peel Public Health forms for the public distribution of Food & Beverage. Please visit the Region of Peel Health Department at <http://www.peelregion.ca/health/enviroNew/food/events.htm> for food handling and/or preparation guidelines. Any violations of the health code may result in the immediate termination of food services by Region of Peel.
